

Howdy Agriculturals!

My name is Justin Smith and I am your BG dad!!!!!! I'm so excited to meet you guys and be a resource for you in your first semester of college!!! I have been praying that you would have a smooth transition into college, which is what I am here to help you do... but first, a little bit about me:

I am a senior Aerospace Engineer (A WHOOP!!!!!!) at the greatest university in the world... TEXAS A&M!! If you guys are wondering where I would be on a typical day in College Station, you would find me playing frisbee golf (otherwise known as FROLF) at Research Park, hanging out at the Brew Coffeehouse (even though I despise coffee), or studying at Zachry Engineering Building (which unfortunately I do quite frequently). Some of my other hobbies are playing drums, the recorder, spike ball, watching Lost, playing CATAN with the boys, and hanging out with friends!

As I said earlier, I am your BG dad, which means that I have the privilege of serving you guys and helping you walk through your first semester of College. College is tough, especially when you're first starting out. Everyone has a trouble when they first start college, including me back in the day!! Impact Retreat and the people I met there were a great resource to me and is why I joined it! Getting acclimated to Texas A&M and making College Station comfortable to you is what I am here to help you do. So, if you guys ever have questions, concerns, or just want someone to hang out with, I am your guy!

These next few days at Retreat will be a blast!!! I know it's a little abnormal to have retreat on zoom, but bear with us and I promise it will be a worthwhile experience!!!

Lastly, my contact info is below, so please don't be afraid to use it ☺
