

Howdy y'all/ you all/ agriculturals!

[illegible]

You may be wondering what you have just stumbled upon... well we will tell ya. This is the greatest group, establishment, organization, collection of oxygen breathing persons you have or will ever be a part of. So get excited. WHP!!

Shalom! My name is Laurel Weyand and I am FIGHTIN' TEXAS AGGIE, CLASS OF 2023 A-A-A-A-A! My favorite Disney movie is Frozen (and my partner's favorite Disney movie is Frozen 2 so we are just a couple of ice cubez). I can ride my bike with no handlebars! I also own a bowling ball. In fact, I was on my high school's varsity bowling team and bowled in the state tournament. Pretty cool right!!! But most importantly, I am yalls BG mom!

Hola, me llamo Justin Smith and I am a FIGHTIN TEXAS AGGIE, CLASS OF 2021 A- WHOOP! I cut my finger yesterday! Oh no! But don't worry I am all better and ready for camp. Also, I may be old but I am a cool cat i swear! YOLO SWAG! Speaking of cats...I am a big cat person and my cat Daisy is therefore my first child and yalls oldest sibling. I am an avid recorder player and you can venture to my instagram to observe my skillzzzzz. But most importantly, I am yalls BG dad!

We are your BG parents and we are so happy to finally meet you! We are here to walk through your first semester of college with y'all and help y'all wherever needed! We have been praying for yall and can't wait to see what God has in store for your freshman year. Make sure to reach out if you have any questions about churches, clubs, study spots, or literally anything you could imagine. These next few days are going to be a hoot and a half and this is truly a great opportunity to build relationships. We pray that yall can be encouraged by this and unafraid to be bold in getting to know us and each other. College is truly shaped by the people you surround yourself with, so we hope that this will build a great foundation for y'all!

Love,
Your proud parents of BG Shake n' Bake
