To our BG Girlies...

Hello, my sweet friends! I cannot believe the time is finally here. Happy dance! Though retreat does not look at all how any of us imagined it, how sweet is it that we get to rest in the fact that the Lord knows exactly what He is doing! It is truly an honor to have the opportunity to serve you as your Impact counselor this week and moving forward. I want to walk alongside you in helping you feel hopeful for this upcoming year and comfortable in searching for a godly community. I so badly want to be there for you, to love on you, and to point you in the direction of our Heavenly Father! After retreat is over, I am praying that you would end feeling like you are entering college with forty new friends cheering you on. I pray that you feel bold and empowered to seek out a godly community, church, or small group as you enter this new chapter! Because retreat is online, there may be some uncomfortable moments, but I would encourage each of you to try to get comfortable being uncomfortable. When we do, it allows for vulnerability and growth which ultimately leads to a strengthened relationship between you and me, but more importantly between you and the Father. I am beyond pumped to meet you guys! I just know this week is going to be a blast and that He is going to move in miraculous ways amidst this global pandemic. I love each of you dearly and I am fighting for you!

Always by your side,
Bri
